Workplace Support

Specialist 1-to-1 support

For an inclusive workplace

We develop strategies and solutions with employees when stress, burnout, neurodiversity, autism, learning differences, ADHD, low-confidence or a mental health condition has an impact on their work life.

Tailored to each individual, our Workplace Support is delivered 1-to-1 online by highly qualified support specialists.

99% user satisfaction for 9 years running

Impactful support

Proven to have a positive impact on engagement, productivity and wellbeing. Increasing confidence, independence and reaching goals within a few sessions.

Fast and flexible

We can put support in place in a matter of hours. Sessions are delivered by qualified support workers around work commitments to suit all shift patterns. Leaving you more time to focus on core tasks.

Inclusive and compliant

Our support services help your organisation comply with the Equality Act, while building a workplace culture that supports diversity and belonging.

Employee Feedback

“The excellent support that I have is testament that it’s not a one size fits all, Clear Links was flexible enough to be able to match me with a Workplace Strategy Coach that made me feel understood for my personality, my neurodiversity.”

Richard D. – Manager
NHS Foundation Trust

Our proactive and practical support service can help with:

- Time management, organisation, and communication.
- Building confidence and clarity.
- Supporting neurodivergent or disabled team members with practical strategies.
- Promoting wellbeing and sustainable working habits.
- Enhancing working relationships and team dynamics.
- And much more!

Inclusive workplaces attract and retain talent
